KIND OLD SANTA CLAUS!

What "The Ledger's" Little Friends Want the Jolly Old Chap to Bring Them Christmas.

THIRD YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1894.

ONE CENT.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to pay more than $1000 a week free more than a merchant can afford to pay over his counter free gifts of dry goods, or any other article of legitimate business concern. Its cost is its stock in trade. Advertising is not to be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Call

Upon THE LEDGER for free notices have become so burdensome that we have decided to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Successes, exercises, fairs, or other public entertainments, etc., etc., charged, in for obituary notices, notices of requests, etc., etc., The Lawyer will charge $1.00 for a line, and the same will be the inevitable result. This, how-

GRANDMOTHER'S WEATHER BUREAU.

When the baby's eyes are stormy,
With a little rain.

Grandmother shakes her head and murmurs

She's afraid it's going to rain.

When the baby's eyes are dancing

Shining like two stars with fun.

Grandma smiles and says she's certain

We shall have a spell of fine weather.
